The Astaria String Quartet

brings youthful exuberance to the challenging and sublime compositions from the core of the string quartet repertoire. Their busy schedule involves performing for music clubs, music societies and music festivals across the UK.

They are Quartet in Residence at Huntingdon Hall Worcester and promote their own festival, Chamber Music @ Worcester annually at St. Oswald's Chapel in Worcester.

Accolades include attending master classes with Garfield Jackson and Malcolm Layfield and a period of study with the distinguished doyen of chamber music Gábor Takács-Nagy in Geneva. They have also released their first album Fiesta, a celebration of Spanish and Latin American Music.
